

URTA AUDITIONS (HYBRID): CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, FULLERTON

Venue Information: Candidates auditioning at the hybrid Cal State Fullerton URTA Auditions will attend in-person, while the recruiters will be watching a live-stream of the auditions from off-site.

Candidate auditions will take place on campus at California State University, Fullerton in the Clayes Performing Arts Center (800 N. State College Blvd., Fullerton, CA 92831). Please enter through the doors beside the box office on your scheduled audition date for candidate check-in.

If you will be driving to the auditions, parking is available in the Nutwood Parking Structure (located off of State College Blvd on Arts Drive). Parking on the weekend is free, however please be sure to obey all posted parking signage in the garage. URTA is not responsible for any tickets or towing expenses. You will see the Clayes Performing Arts Center to your right as you exit the parking structure onto Arts Drive.

On the morning of your scheduled audition date: Please enter the lobby of the Clayes Performing Arts Center through the doors closest to the box office. URTA candidate check-in will take place each morning in the lobby of the Clayes Performing Arts Center (by the box office). Please arrive on your audition date at the scheduled check-in time.

Candidates should refer to the scheduling messages they received in Acceptd for their assigned audition date/time, as well as information on the mandatory candidate check-in and orientation. After the auditions end, all candidates must exit the Clayes Performing Arts Center.

Callbacks: Callback schedules with the URTA member schools will be emailed to candidates (refer to daily schedule). For candidates that indicated they are available for same-day callbacks, all callbacks will take place on Zoom. Candidates may NOT do their Zoom callbacks at the Performing Arts Center.

Guest programs will post 'Contact-Later' lists, to indicate the candidates they wish to speak with after the URTAs. These lists will be posted in a Dropbox (link to provided on the day of the event), see daily schedule for time of posting.
